

BIG QUESTION

Did the universe have a beginning?

Look up at the night sky. Has it always been there?

Long ago, a wise man said the world had always been here.

But scientists found that the galaxies are moving apart. Long ago, everything had a beginning.

The Bible tells us who began it: “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.”

True or false?

Circle T if it is true. Circle F if it is false.
