

BIG QUESTION

Was Jesus predicted before he was born?

Long ago, a man named Isaiah wrote a poem about God's servant.

The servant would be hurt for our wrongs. He would stay quiet when people blamed him.

He would be buried with a rich man. Then he would live again!

About 700 years later, Jesus came, and it all came true.

Promise kept!

Draw a line from each promise to what happened.

1 Quiet when blamed

A Three days later, the tomb was empty.

2 Buried with a rich man

B Soldiers gambled for Jesus's clothes.

3 He will live again

C Jesus said nothing to Pilate.

4 They gamble for his clothes

D A rich man put Jesus in his tomb.

Memory verse

“Not one of all the Lord's good promises to Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.”

Joshua 21:45

I can say it! ☆ ☆ ☆ Color a star each time you say it.

Talk about it

1. Isaiah wrote about Jesus long before he was born. Which promise surprised you?
2. Why can we trust God's promises?
3. Isaiah says “by his wounds we are healed.” What does that mean?

Watch the video