

BIG QUESTION

Did the feasts point to Jesus?

God gave Israel seven feasts. Paul called them “a shadow of the things that were to come.”

Jesus was crucified at Passover, at the hour the lambs were killed. During the Feast of Unleavened Bread, he lay in the tomb. He rose on Firstfruits, the day after the Sabbath. Fifty days later, at Pentecost, God poured out his Spirit.

His followers didn't choose those days. The priests didn't even want it during the feast.

Four feasts, four events

Draw a line from each feast to what happened to Jesus on it. The story has the answers.

1 Passover

A Jesus rises from the dead.

2 Unleavened Bread

B God pours out his Spirit.

3 Firstfruits

C Jesus dies, like the Passover lamb.

4 Pentecost

D Jesus lies in the tomb.

Talk about it

1. Why does it matter that Jesus's followers couldn't pick the days?
2. A shadow shows the shape of something real. How are the feasts like that?
3. Jesus is our Passover lamb. What does he set us free from?
